GLORY OF GOD

Often as believers, I feel we forget what we were made for; God's purpose in creating us. For Theresa, Kathy, and I it is easy to become fixated on the hardships the girls face or lose sight of the bigger picture. That bigger picture is that all we do in this life is for the GLORY of GOD. Daily we have to remind ourselves that our purpose is not just about our "job" but about God and His glory. The same goes for you...in whatever you do, God's desire for His children is that it be for His glory. So focus on that, dwell on the eternal and not the earthly. We were made for something much greater than ourselves...God's Glory.

Blessings, Catherine

"The glory of God is the manifest beauty of His holiness, it's the going public of His holiness, it's the way He puts His holiness on display for people to apprehend.

Open your eyes. Do you see it? Do you love it? You were made for this! MADE FOR THIS! This is why I exist to see that! Everything is

The heavens are telling the Glory of God. He's shouting at us! Shouts with clouds. Shouts with blue expanse. Shouts with gold on the horizons. Shouts with galaxies and stars. He's shouting 'I AM GLORIOUS.'

pointing to that! All the glory that I thought was so attractive is going there! Now we see through a glass darkly then we see face to face. I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the GLORY that will be revealed to us. The glory that is coming is of such all-satisfy, infinitely beautiful, totally need-meeting, joy-producing time. 80 years of pain will be as NOTHING! This light and momentary affliction is working for us an eternal weight of what? GLORY! Are you glad that you exist to display the GLORY of GOD?

God is aiming that we see, and savor, and treasure His glory; the riches of His glory. So I ask you, do you see it? Do you love it? And I'll say again...

YOU WERE MADE FOR THIS!"

—John Piper Monologue from Matt Papa's song "The Glory of God"

We were so blessed again this year to have Hampton and Katie Brice Elvington celebrate their birthday with us by collecting baby items for our center in lieu of birthday gifts!
